14. Any unqualified use of the name Native American or Indian or an Indian tribe suggests that the product is Indian made and an Indian product under the IACA.

15. A non-Indian maker of products in an Indian style motif and design cannot utilize the terms “Indian,” “Native American” or the name of a particular Indian tribe in advertising or marketing said products unless said maker qualifies the usage of such terms so that consumers are not suggested to be purchasing authentic Indian-made products. products through different advertisements, advertising activities and mediums, in a manner that falsely suggested they are Indian-made, an Indian product, a product of an Indian tribe or the product of an Indian arts and crafts organization resident within the United States.

21. For substantial periods of time since August 8, 2004 and continuously thereafter to the present date, Defendant advertised, marketed, offered and displayed for sale and sold goods in a manner that falsely suggested they are Indian-made, an Indian product, a product of an Indian tribe or the product of an Indian arts and crafts organization resident within the United States, including Indian products consisting of art, crafts, dolls and artworks in a traditional Indian style or medium.

22. The Indian-style goods advertised, displayed, offered for sale and sold by Defendant since August 8, 2004, including those advertised, sold, displayed and offered for sale alleged herein, are not and were not Indian produced, an Indian product made by an Indian or the product of an Indian arts and crafts organization resident in the United States or an non-member Indian artisan certified by an Indian tribe, all as defined in 25 U.S.C. §305 et. seq. and the regulations thereunder.

23. Defendant's advertisement, display, offering for sale and sale of Indian style goods in a manner that falsely suggests they are Indian products, Indian produced or the product of a particular Indian or Indian tribe or Indian arts and crafts organization resident within the United States is illegal and should be enjoined in that no adequate remedy at law exists and Plaintiff will be irrevocably injured and damages will be difficult to measure.

24. Native American Arts has been injured and damaged as a result of Defendant's actions alleged herein. Native American Arts is a competitor of Defendant and has suffered competitive injuries as a result of Defendant's actions alleged herein, as well as other damages including (1) Native American Arts lost sales as a direct and indirect result of the Defendant's offer, display and sale of similar Indian-style products to those offered, displayed and sold by Native American Arts through similar mediums and markets, (2) Defendant's imitation products drove down prices of authentic Indian products, forcing Plaintiff to offer its authentic products at lower prices, (3) that Plaintiff has suffered a loss of goodwill and reputation because of Defendant's counterfeit product and (4) that Defendant's had a gross profit on the products alleged herein. Native American Arts advertises, markets and sells authentic Indian-made products similar to those products advertised, offered, displayed and sold by Defendant falsely suggested to be Indian-made products, including but not limited to, arts, crafts, jewelry and artworks in a traditional Indian style or medium. Native American Arts advertises, offers, markets and sells authentic Indian-made products through various mediums including, but not limited to, newspaper advertisements, radio, signs, catalogs, brochures, internet, mailed solicitations, miscellaneous and in-store retail displays.

25. The injuries suffered by Native American Arts, Inc. include, but are not limited to, advertising injury arising out of Defendant's misappropriation of Native American Art, Inc.'s advertising ideas and style of doing business.

26. The injuries suffered by Native American Arts, Inc. include, but are not limited to, advertising injury arising out of Defendant's infringement of title by falsely suggesting and misrepresenting that its products were Indian made when they were not.

27. The injuries suffered by Native American Arts, Inc. include but, are not limited to, advertising injury arising out of Defendant's use of another's advertising idea.

28. The injuries suffered by Native American Arts, Inc. include, but are not limited to, advertising injury arising out of Defendant's infringing upon Native American Arts' slogan.

29. Liability for compensatory damages under the IACA is strict liability and not dependent upon intentional conduct as ruled in the case of Ho-Chunk et. al., v. Village Originals, Inc. 25 F. Supp.2d 876 (N.D.II. 1998) and Ho-Chunk v. Natures Gifts, Inc., 1999 U.S. Dist. Lexis 3687 (N.D. Il. 1999).

30. Title 25 U.S.C. §305e (a) provides for damages of the greater of treble damages or $1,000 for each day on which the offer or display for sale of a good falsely suggested to be Indian produced, an Indian product, or the product of an Indian, an Indian tribe, or an Indian arts and crafts organization continues.

31. Native American Arts is an Indian arts and crafts organization entitled to the damages alleged herein.

32. The exact amount of damages is presently unknown, but is believed to exceed twelve million dollars ($12,000,000.00).

33. Title 25 U.S.C. §305e (a) also provides for injunctive and other equitable relief.

34. Substantial amounts for attorney's fees and costs of suit have been or are being incurred for which reimbursement and payment is hereby sought.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Native American Arts, Inc. prays for the entry of judgment against Defendant, and:

- (a) for an award of compensatory damages in an amount to be determined but believed to exceed twelve million dollars ($12,000,000.00);
- (b) reasonable attorneys fees and costs of suit;
- (c) a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction and permanent injunction; and
- (d) such other and further relief as this Court deems just and deserving.
